Community Links Wollondilly is a community based and managed organisation, located in the Tahmoor Community Centre, that services residents in the Wollondilly, Camden, Campbelltown & Wingecarribee Local Government Areas.

Our services and programs benefit all members of the community including young people, families, the general community, community groups and local business.

We employ professionals to work with individuals and groups of people who may be disadvantaged, caring for someone who is disadvantaged, and/or experiencing a challenging period in their lives, by providing programs, workshops, seminars, events and activities . An information and referral service is also available, through Community Links Wollondilly, to put people in contact with other specialist information and support services.

By becoming a member of Community Links you will be supporting the continued work of this valuable local community organisation.

Membership is currently $1.00 per year and entitles you to the following benefits:-

- Term calendar of events, activities and workshops
- Parent Information Session & Workshop dates
- Invites to Events & Activities
- Sponsorship and partnering opportunities
- Opportunities for young people to promote youth culture, events and activities in Wollondilly
- Automatic subscription to our quarterly newsletter
